COFFEE MARKET.

CURB MARKET IS

Trading Generally Is Quiet, but Several Oil Issues Are Firm.

The Curb market was featured yestornay by a further sharp advance in Cleveland Automobile new stock, which rose quickly at the opening, but in the next few minutes reacted. Later an active demand again developed and the stock crossed 90, a new high. At that rate the old stock would be worth about 1,500, which also constitutes a new high. The rest of the market, although active in spots, showed little life. There ere reveral firm issues in the list, parthe larly in the oils, but the general trend was irregular. General Asphalt strengthened toward the close, after being offered lower. Dominion Oil was in good demand throughout the session gained almost a point. Total sales and range of prices follow: INDUSTRIALS.

GRAIN MARKET.

Short covering was responsible mainly yesterday for the last hour rally in the corn market. Previous to the final low the market had been selling off.

May corn declined to 151½, but at that point shorts began to cover and some longs re-entered the market. That combination bid the prices up rapidly. The deliveries had advanced 4 to 4½ cents a bushel at the day's high from its low, and closed near the best figures. Sentiment at the outset leaned toward the bear side, a good many of the tradooking for further reaction. pening as a result was not disappointing. Selling was attributed to quiete.
